HOLISTIC THERAPY

REFLEXOLOGY

Reflexology is an ancient healing therapy which is believed to be almost as old as history itself, practiced in India, China, Egypt and American Indian tribes more than 3,000 years ago. Reflexology is not a diagnostic, nor a cure-all treatment, but it can give relief to many conditions. It calms and relaxes the mind and body thus reducing stress, leaving a feeling of well being. The treatment is performed on the feet and lower leg.
